FITS BREECHES FEATURED ON HORSEGIRL TV

Portland, Oregon USA. FITS breeches, the most technical and innovative riding breech on the market today, is the subject of a new video pod cast segment on HorseGirlTV. (<http://www.horsegirltv.com/episode06.php>).

The interview gives in-depth details on FITS patent pending PerformAX™ leather technology (featuring segmented panels and perforations to give the rider the best possible grip, breathability, comfort and security in the saddle); and FITS Body Sculpt Technology that flatters the wearer and enhances rider performance. Rudolph also shares her views on starting up an equine-related business.

HorseGirlTV™ is a semi-monthly show hosted by Angelea Kelly that covers topics ranging from grooming for an Olympic rider; physical training of the equestrian athlete; and how to find that perfect pair of riding breeches.
